

Purchaser / Senior Purchaser at UltraShip

The Job

You will become part of the procurement team handling operational purchasing and logistics for a fleet of gas and bulk vessels, trading worldwide, and will work closely with both internal and external parties to ensure timely and safe delivery of all requirements for the vessels.

Furthermore, the team is responsible for all strategic Procurement disciplines, such as sourcing, contract negotiation and managing of supplier relations, and it plays an essential role in the preparation and execution of CAPEX projects, such as dockings and newbuildings.

The responsibilities of the procurement team also include Group (Ultrana) level activities, where Ultraship is a driving factor in contract negotiations and initiatives with common agendas.

You will be given a role with significant individual responsibilities, that will be visible and impactful, as well as important in achieving our goals.

Your primary responsibilities will be focused in the following areas:

- Operational purchasing for a dedicated set of vessels
- Planning and coordination of transportation to vessels
- Participation in projects and work groups
- Supplier Management (day to day and strategic perspectives)

Your Profile

Preferably, you have a background within purchasing in the marine industry or similar; you have a strong track record and are well aware of what matters in delivering a strong support to the fleet. Further, you have experience with a broad range of procurement disciplines, and have a theoretical background that enables participation in work across areas. Experience within logistics is an advantage

In addition to being passionate and energetic, you are a team player and used to obtain results through cooperation. You have an open mind and work efficiently and structured. You are a fast learner and are able to adjust and adapt in a hectic environment with changing priorities.

What we offer

- A dynamic and international environment in a company with a financially strong platform and a business built on partnerships and long term relationships.
- A social and open workplace with good company benefits such as a pension scheme, health insurance and lunch.
- A possibility to utilize a wide range of procurement skills, surrounded by experienced and progressive colleagues, delivering noticeable results.

Application Process: Apply as soon as possible as applications are being reviewed on an ongoing basis
